December 17, 2010

Arvidson Corner-

There is something special about December. I know it's a busy month and people are busy buying gifts, decorating their homes, and counting down the days until Christmas or Christmas vacation if you happen to still be in school. But December is truly a special month because of something else. December, like no other month, has the ability to bring people together. As the month nears an end, you find yourself reflecting on the times you gathered with friends, co-workers, other Lions, and family.

It's still the first week of December and already I have gathered with co-workers, assisted Lion Paul with bell ringing for the Salvation Army, have an upcoming luncheon at work, a Lions Christmas party in a couple of weeks and a family get together closing in on me. All this is happening before Christmas with a variety of people.

I assume my schedule mirrors most people and because of that I realize a great possibility exists that I may not see many of the people who have made 2010 an enjoyable and blessed year for my family and me. So if our paths don't cross I want to express my deepest thanks to all of you for providing direction, camaraderie, perspective, and enjoyment over the last 12 months. I hope throughout 2011 we find time to gather and make what is special about December also happen during the other 11 months of the year. Enjoy your gatherings this month. Be safe and God Bless.
